

Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) Policy

I Preamble:

- (1) The Challenge of Inclusive Growth: India's "democratic dividend" of a young population, is an immense opportunity. A 5 - 6% growth curve has created an economy hungry for skilled manpower. It is estimated that incremental manpower requirement by 2022 would be 200 mn. However, only 25% of educated youth are "Ready to Deploy" as they lack the necessary domain, analytical, communication and life skills. If not skilled and provided jobs, this opportunity could become a social nightmare. Further, whilst the size of the economy has increased, large segments of the population - those below-the-poverty line (BPL), women, other select minorities and castes have till now, largely been bypassed - a challenge of social inclusion

- (2) The IEISL CSR policy is being designed with a belief that creating possibilities of economic inclusion powered by skilling and supporting livelihood creations, is the most effective way to manage challenges posed by poverty, inequality and unemployment.
